

Labor Management Training Scenario

Your table is the union labor-management committee at Bragg University. The company has a policy in their employee handbook that drug testing can be done at random. The policy states that the Employee must go to a drug testing company to do a urine analysis within two hours of being directed by management. Recently, Management has started to do swab testing onsite and 4 employees have failed this test and have been terminated.