

SEIU Airport Workers Are Winning Bigger Than Ever!

In our union, airport workers --from the curb to the airplane cabin-- have united to win big.

Together in our union:

Over 37,000 airport workers at 45 airports have united in SEIU

Nearly 155,000 airport workers won fair wages and other improvements like healthcare and sick days

Stood up to global corporations and won respect and dignity on the job

"We are here with our colleagues who are ready to fight! This country is all about fighting for your rights. Whether you're from Massachusetts, or Illinois, we need to stand on our feet! We will fight, we will win!"

Ababuti Olok, Skycap at BOS

We are a part of a movement of workers who are speaking out and taking on corporate power.

We're coming together to:

Unite

over 100,000 airport workers nationwide

Fight

and take action to improve airport
jobs everywhere

Build Power

and elect leaders who will stand with us

The fact is airlines have been getting more and more powerful and are writing the rules that affect our lives.

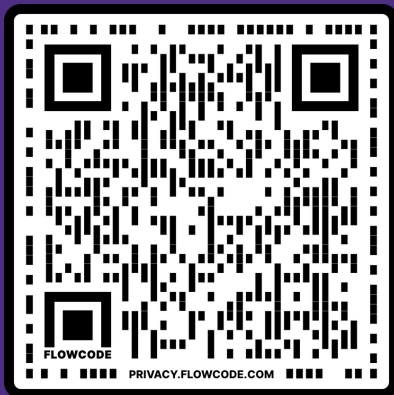

It's time for working people to have a say and a chance to write the rules so we can have rich fulfilled lives where we can care for our families and have time for fun, not just work and struggle to get by.

That's why we are coming together across airports and unions, to do what we have done in the past -- stick together in our union and win!

We are prepared to do what it takes to win --from passing Federal laws, to holding elected officials accountable to us, to demonstrating our power through strikes and civil disobedience.

"Airport workers are so important. We need to be respected and paid for the work we do. And we all need to have a union. I'm going to keep fighting, and I won't stop until we win unions for all!"

Verna Montalvo, Cabin Cleaner at DFW
